

Organizational Reflection Questions

2020 - 2021

1. How do you feel about your ability to articulate and commit to the mission of the organization?
2. What do you feel were the successes and challenges from the last academic year? What are ways that you have found to maintain the successes and address the challenges?
3. What are the opportunities and challenges that you feel the RSO will be facing this academic year?
4. What are the strengths and concerns you have as leadership coming into this academic year?
5. How do you feel about the RSO's ability to retain and have committed leaders and members for the RSO?
6. How do you feel about your ability to understand and articulate the RSO finances?
7. How does your organization develop and/or create meetings, productions and/or events? Has the RSO discussed any programming you would like to host this year?
8. In reviewing the questions we discussed, let's discuss the key goals that the RSO has identified. Do you feel that they are still reflective of the reflection we had? What are the opportunities and challenges in achieving these goals?
