

FOUNDATIONAL LEADERSHIP SERIES

Deadline to RSVP: October 25, 2024

As student leaders, you and your organizations are constantly adapting to an ever-changing and complex environment. The Foundational Leadership Series was designed to support your growth and ability to create positive change in your immediate environment as you navigate challenges throughout the year. As you practice what you learn, the culture of your organization's grow stronger, and there's no limit to what you all can accomplish.

The leadership series is a big step toward that possibility. To find the trainings you need to complete, please review your Path A or B handout.

Engaging Communication

Learn practices to engage in collective learning through offering and receiving information and ideas.

Authentic Collaboration

Learn practices to create solutions through deliberation that is mutually respectful and draws on all perspectives.

Making Money Moves

Learn the basics of fiscal management, including an overview of various financial documents and procedures and understanding an organization's budget.
